

Cheryl Ann King

June 20, 1958 - December 17, 2025

Cheryl Ann King, 67, of Howell, passed away peacefully on December 17, 2025, at her home, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Red Bank and grew up in Matawan before moving to Howell 40 years ago, where she made her home and raised her family. Cheryl worked for many years as a senior clerk at JCP&L, where she was known for her dedication and reliability.

Above all else, Cheryl's greatest joy was her family. She was a devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister, and grandmother, and nothing meant more to her than time spent with those she loved. Her grandchildren were the center of her world, and she cherished every moment with them.

Cheryl's legacy lives on through the strong, loving family she built and nurtured. She will be remembered for her unconditional love, her selflessness, her larger-than-life personality and the way she always put her family first. The traditions, memories, and values she passed down will continue to guide her family for generations.

She is survived by her loving husband, Rob King; her daughter, Kerri Mason, and her husband, Michael; her son, Robbie King, and his wife, Ali; her parents, William and Carolyn Bommer; her brothers, Bill Bommer and his wife, Kathy, and Carl Bommer; her sister, Diane Sigismondi, and her husband, Ted; her four cherished grandchildren, Liam, Addison, Noah, and Aiden; as well as many nieces and nephews. She will be deeply loved and dearly missed by her large family.

A visitation will be held on Sunday, December 21, 2025, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. at O'Brien Funeral Home, 505 Burnt Tavern Road, Brick. A funeral service will take place on Monday, December 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at the funeral home. Interment will be private.
